Connect with us at webmaster@cancer.org.in or WhatsApp on +91-95946-09797 to finalise payment and dispatch logistics.

Framing & Transportation:

Most works in the collection are not framed unless they require framing for proper viewing or preservation. Framing and transportation costs will be determined by whether you want your work framed, the frame you select, the current location of the artist and your shipping address.

Please note that the transportation costs of a framed work will be significantly higher. Some indicative transportation costs are given below:

- (a) Mumbai to USA Framed work: Rs. 1,30,000 (INR) | Rolled-up work: Rs. 14,000 (INR)
- (b) Mumbai to Bangalore Framed work: Rs. 16,400 (INR) | Rolled-up work: Rs. 2,000 (INR)
- Insurance will be 0.5% extra on actual price.
- 3. Art on the wall: Once you have shortlisted the work of your choice, email us a perspective picture of the wall and room with dimensions on webmaster@cancer.org.in. We will email you a digital rendering to help you visualise and select the work.
- 4. Payment: Once we arrive at the final cost, the payment can be made to us on our online payment gateway at https://cancer.org.in/donate/. You will receive an 80G certificate (Indian accounts only) for the donation amount on realisation of payment. Please note that the certificate will be applicable to the account holder from whose account the payment is made.
- 5. Dispatch: Email webmaster@cancer.org.in your payment confirmation with details of the work and your shipping address to initiate dispatch. Ensure that the shipping address is not in a Covid-19 containment zone. Approximate Express Domestic delivery (7-8 days in normal times) | International delivery (minimum 3 weeks). You will receive the work selected with the Authenticity Certificate from the artist and the receipt and 80G certificate (Indian accounts only) from CPAA.

Note: Payment once made will not be refunded except in the most exceptional cases and before dispatch of the work.

FOREWORD

Colours of Life: Give to Receive

No one wants to call cancer, cancer. The disease, the illness, the malady, the tumour, the malignancy. The Big C. Who knew that out of the blue we would be called upon to fight another Big C. An invisible enemy that strikes the old, the weak, the ones who are already sick. Today we all know something of the fear cancer patients live with. The fear of being diagnosed with the dreaded disease, of having failed the fateful test when it comes out positive. The mysterious manner in which some survive and some are laid low. We had to learn and understand the significance of strange medical terms. And we all now wear that badge of honour that identified cancer patients in otherwise anonymous photographs. The mask.

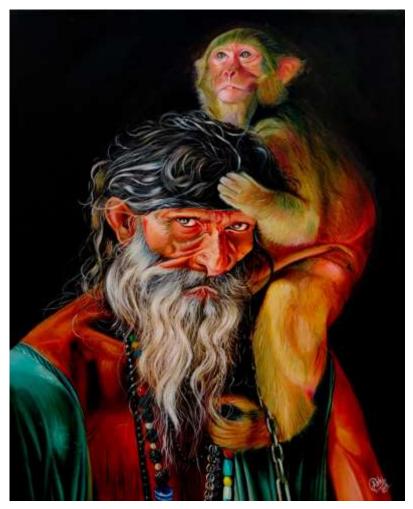

In such a scenario, it was hard to imagine that we would be able to organise the annual art exhibition and sale that has brought together artists and art lovers on a common platform since 2005, with a single goal, to ensure cancer patients get the treatment they need. In keeping with the realities of the times, and with the active encouragement of many artists who have become friends over the years, we decided to hold it online. The experience gleaned from previous exhibitions has served us well, we have made the transition relatively easily. What was overwhelming was the enthusiasm of the art fraternity who have given generously once again to ensure there is something for everyone. Every genre, size, medium, colour, price, you will surely find something that ticks every box. So give to receive. And know that your generosity has brought hope to the life of someone struggling to cope with two Big Cs.

Shubha Mandgal
